VOL. IX.—NO. 6086. PORTLAND, OREGON: TUESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1880. PRICE—TEN CENTS.

GENERAL NEWS.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.)

A Rather Sensational Situation.

[illegible], Oct. 18.—A telegram to Gov. Pitkin says that Agent Berry, Hoyt, Cline and Mrs. [illegible] are in jail at Gunnison City charged with murder of Jackson the freighter.

John Davenport to John Kelly.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—John I. Davenport has addressed John Kelly and members of the committee on organization of Tammany hall a letter in reference to the statements made by members of that committee that they possessed evidence of colonization of voters in this city in the interest of the republican party. He calls upon them to produce such evidence, and promises in every case where it is needed, to cause arrest of the offending persons and permit them to be brought before such U. S. commissioners as Kelly or his counsel may designate.

Base of the Railroad War.

[illegible], Oct. 18.—Yesterday the Alton road cut rates to Council Bluffs to $6 50 and to Omaha $7 [illegible] City, and to-day the Wabash dropped to the same prices. To Chicago and Kansas City regular and round trip rates to Chicago $3 40. The Union Pacific meets all cuts west. No public announcement is made of the cut to eastern points, though participation of eastern roads is likely.

Various Items Gathered at Chicago.

[illegible], Oct. 18.—The Journal's Rockford special says Dr Thomas this morning read his reasons to withdraw from the church, which was referred to a special committee of which Dr Jewett is chairman to decide what action shall be taken with the appeal.

[illegible] to Peoria this morning by the Wabash road [illegible] return tickets, limited $2. Rates to St [illegible] are unchanged. All ticket offices are besieged.

The Journal's Des Moines special says: The ground is frozen several inches deep hereabouts and a third of the potato crop is not dug and is probably a total loss.

The crew and passengers of the wrecked steamer are variously stated at forty to seventy. The captain, Napier, was a trusty and skillful officer of the Goodrich line, to which she belonged, [illegible] give any information about her or her passengers. She was not the staunchest vessel on the lake.

A Big Defalcation.

[illegible], Oct. 18.—John A Woodward for 15 years [illegible] the treasury department here has disappeared. It is alleged that he is a defaulter for $82,000. He had a good social position and no bad or [illegible] habits. A woman named Amy Knowl[illegible] claims she is his wife.

The Ute Unpleasantness.

[illegible], Oct. 18.—Berry still eludes State arrest and Washington authorities, by telegraph [illegible]. He is in an Indian camp and there [illegible] Meacham is in the military camp.

An Absurd Story.

[illegible], Oct. 18.—Advices from Saguache, say that [illegible], a government scout, gives testimony [illegible] to prove that Berry, Meacham, Holmes [illegible] intentionally gave young Jackson over to [illegible]. He says Col Beaumont, who, with his [illegible] a short distance from Cline's ranche, [illegible] offered to protect the freighters, Berry and others ordered him to proceed to [illegible]. The scout states he examined the place [illegible] Indians were supposed to have forcibly [illegible], but found no sign of a struggle.

Berry not yet Arrested.

[illegible], Oct. 18.—A dispatch received here to-day [illegible] Agent Berry has not been arrested, and [illegible] either by Indians or United States [illegible].

A Delightful Climate.

[illegible], Oct. 18.—Friday's and Saturday's [illegible] unusual for this season. Snow fell on [illegible] and melted as it fell. It has turned [illegible] with a raw northwestern gale, and the [illegible] solid and are very rough. On the [illegible] branch of the Northwestern, snow [illegible] blockaded the trains. Snow is from [illegible] feet deep all along the Sioux City rail[illegible]. From that point to Sioux City snow fell con[illegible] Friday night and Saturday, melting al[illegible] as it fell. Saturday night a sheet of ice [illegible] three to four inches thick. [illegible] St. Paul and Yankton due Saturday [illegible] arrived here.

Wind Storm at Chicago.

[illegible], Oct. 18.—The epizootic continues in a [illegible], with prospect of its becoming general [illegible] throughout the day with some[illegible] force, [illegible] far less disastrous on the [illegible] been expected, because sufficient warning [illegible] given to allow most of the [illegible] to seek harbor. The only accident of a serious [illegible] reported is the loss of the schooner B W [illegible], Captain [illegible], laden with iron ore, from [illegible] to Chicago, with a crew of eight persons, [illegible] foundered off this port last night, and as [illegible] the crew have reported it is presumed all [illegible]. Its masts and spars were sighted this [illegible], but no trace of any of the crew. Damage [illegible] will aggregate very heavy in this vicinity. [illegible] of the wind seemed most marked about [illegible] included within a radius of 100 miles from [illegible], but the blow itself extended much farther, [illegible] about the western limit, Michigan the [illegible] central Illinois, southern, and Wisconsin [illegible]. Telegraph wires remain in a precari[illegible]. Many of them are entirely useless at [illegible].

Wind and Snow Storm in Wisconsin.

[illegible], Oct. 18.—The wind storm here yester[illegible] night was the severest ever known in [illegible]. The barometer was never so low, the [illegible] the south blowing between 60 and 70 [illegible]. Dispatches from La Crosse say that [illegible] along the line of the Southern Minnesota [illegible] is the severest known in years. Passenger [illegible] along the lines are blockaded in [illegible] to twelve feet deep, and teams with [illegible] have been despatched to their relief from [illegible]. The train which left La Crosse Fri[illegible] [illegible] heard from since leaving Fulda that [illegible] west of Fairmount are filled with [illegible]. Reports of cattle, horses, etc., [illegible] are constantly received. Loss of [illegible] is not yet reported. The worst storm [illegible] in Southern Minnesota and Eastern [illegible] still raging.

Damage to Shipping by the Storm.

[illegible], Wis., Oct. 18.—The following list of [illegible] known of here from Lake Michigan: [illegible] swamped and two fishermen [illegible] recovered.

The Episcopal Convention.

[illegible], Oct. 18.—In the Protestant Episcopal [illegible] report was adopted that the church is [illegible] rule of the free pew system. The [illegible] subject reported resolutions that [illegible] adopted setting apart deaconesses for [illegible] the care of the poor and sick, for [illegible] the young, for charity, etc., being [illegible]. Deaconesses must be 21 years old and [illegible] for such work. The report [illegible] the calendar.

Fire in Charleston, S. C.

[illegible], S. C., Oct. 18.—A fire broke out in the [illegible] of the Commercial Cotton Press and [illegible] last night. A strong northwest [illegible] rapidly down the wharf, con[illegible] cotton sheds and a brick ware[illegible] with cotton. The fire soon [illegible] on the wharves and thence to [illegible] steamships, Barrowdale, Fravan[illegible], which were lying at the pier par[illegible] with cotton. The Barrowdale was [illegible] and is still burning, having on [illegible] bales of cotton. The Fravancore [illegible] only slightly damaged. The der[illegible] was burning, and in falling [illegible] on the head, killing him al[illegible]. It is estimated that 2000 bales of [illegible] $110,000, were burned. [illegible], Oct. 18.—Policemen now guard the [illegible] serious damage having been done it by [illegible] chipping off portions.

A Methodist Auto de Fe.

[illegible], Oct. 18.—The Rock River Conference [illegible] adopted Dr Tibball's resolution request[illegible] Dr Thomas to withdraw from the Metho[illegible] church, the vote being 110 to 48. It is under[illegible] Dr Thomas refuses until theological points [illegible] settled.

[illegible] Missionaries for Europe.

[illegible], Oct. 18.—Twenty nine missionaries [illegible] Salt Lake City arrived last night. They sail [illegible] Tuesday. Their efforts will be confined [illegible] Britain and Scandinavia. They will return [illegible].

[illegible] Get up a Riot With Negroes.

[illegible], Oct. 18.—Times' Wilmington, Del [illegible] between negroes and Democrats was [illegible] than reported. It seems that while a Democratic club was marching past the hall in which the [illegible] people were holding a festival two bricks [illegible] thrown at them from the sidewalk. The club halted and remained [illegible] which two shots [illegible] and a heavy volley succeeded this [illegible] from the same quarter which wounded slightly several of the club. Muskets loaded with buckshot were used. The whites at first broke and ran but soon rallied and for twenty or thirty minutes there was a lively interchange of shots, when the [illegible] the parade, the air being filled with brickbats and stones directed against all the colored houses and churches. [illegible] being the list of wounded: Wm M Harvey shot in the left cheek, seriously; Thomas A Kane struck in the breast with a brick; O. C. Montgomery shot twice in the breast; Wm. B. Weir shot in the thigh by a revolver bullet; Wm. J. [illegible], wounded in the back slightly; Frank McGinnis wounded in the neck slightly; Isaac [illegible] struck by a [illegible]; [illegible] knocked down by a brick; Thomas Jones buckshot wound; Elias C. Miller buckshot wound; reporter for Sunday Mirror struck in the abdomen by a spent bullet. Only two colored men were shot, neither seriously. There were many other minor injuries. The negroes finally made a stand and the whites were only deterred from attacking them by the police. The latter were not allowed to approach, and the negroes dispersed. When they saw fit they congregated again this morning, and when the police tried to disperse them they resisted, causing some injury to the police, who finally captured one negro and prevailed on the rest to go home. The Mayor has been urged to prevent night parades in the future but doubts his authority. It is feared trouble may yet ensue.

Miscellaneous Political News.

NEW YORK, Oct 18.—The Herald's reporter at Governor's Island mentioned a rumor that in view of the fact that Hancock's recent letter to Randolph defining his views on the tariff not being sufficiently explicit and comprehensive to make it as effective as a campaign document as the exigencies of the case demand, he will write a supplementary letter on the subject, making his views so clear and broad that there can be no mistake in the matter.

The North American Review for November publishes a long and carefully prepared address on the political situation from a financial standpoint, signed by E D Morgan, Hamilton Fish, J. J. Astor and a dozen other equally prominent business men, in which among other weighty facts and conclusions are the following: "We have entered upon a period of hopeful activity in commerce and industry. Trade multiplies, manufactures start forward with vigor, labor rejoices in fair wages and full employment; yet we have but just emerged from that period of disaster in which the resources of all were greatly strained and resources of capital greatly exhausted. There has not been time yet for business and industry in their various branches to get fully into condition for profitable work, much less has there ever been time for accumulation of new reserves. Business interests are not prepared to bear another period of strain or disaster. They have just begun to thrive. A reaction now, like relapse from fever, would be more dangerous than the original disorder. The business of this country is not in a condition to endure the enormous strain, grave anxiety and prolonged uncertainty of a complete change of financial policy. The fear of disastrous change would prostrate public credit almost as much as those changes themselves. Changes are unavoidable and even already contemplated in unfinished democratic legislation before congress."

WASHINGTON CITY.

Fresh Trouble with the Utes.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Dispatches of a very serious tenor were received to-day from Colorado. Officers at present decline to make them public. A conference was held with officers of the war department and grave trouble is evidently apprehended.

ATLANTIC CABLE.

An Orange Demonstration in Ireland.

DUBLIN, Oct. 18.—A great demonstration of Orangemen took place Saturday at Donaghaloney, County Down, to protest against Parnellite agitation. Two policemen took notes of speeches.

A Cork dispatch says that Hutchins, who was shot at, is a justice of the peace. Only one man attacked him. Hutchins and his driver were armed with revolvers but did not use them.

Government will Prosecute.

LONDON, Oct 18.—The Times, in an editorial, says the belief that the government intends to prosecute agitators has already produced a lull in the agitation. Second rate leaders are cowed. The land league is unusually quiet. Parnell at Longford uttered an uncertain sound. It may be suspected he has not made up his mind what course to pursue, and that his followers share his hesitation.

Stocks in London.

LONDON, Oct 18.—4s 112⅞, 4½s, 114, new 5s, 105. Erie, 45⅞.

Declining Health of the Czar.

BERLIN, Oct 18.—Persistent reports continue to reach here in regard to the very indifferent health of the czar and his inclination to abdicate in favor of the czarowitch, who has gone to Livadia.

The Czar Trying to Settle and Quit.

VIENNA, Oct 18.—The Presse says: We learn on the best authority that Princess Dolgorouki married the czar as the younger niece of the governor general of Moscow and not as the sister of Count Albertinski. Negotiations respecting the future position of Princess Dolgorouki and their children, are still pending. It is proposed that the latter be recognized as princes of the blood and take rank after the grand dukes. Should the czarowitch consent to this arrangement, the czar will appoint him co-regent and transfer to him the reins of the government, the czar retaining imperial privileges and retiring permanently to Livadia.

French Imports and Exports.

PARIS, Oct. 18.—Imports into France for nine months ending 30th of September, show an increase of 258,000,000 francs compared with the same period last year. Of this increase 189,000,000 francs are in food. Exports for the same period increased 69,000,000 francs over those of last year.

The New Hebrides.

PARIS, Oct. 18.—Le Temps says an English coaling station has been established at New Hebrides. Le Temps regards this as a precursor of annexation, and blames the French government for not taking prior possession of the islands, which, after the construction of the Panama canal, will in other hands be troublesome neighbors.

A Very Important Dispatch.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 18.—A herd of goats from Angora, intended for acclimatization in Canada and Cape colony, were attacked at Ismedt by Circassian brigands and a portion stolen.

Turks Massing Troops.

Admiral Seymour informed all admirals that the Turks are concentrating large bodies of troops in Smyrna.

The Vandal War Carried on by Chile Against Peru.

PANAMA, Oct 8.—A Lima correspondent of the Star and Herald, under date of September 2?d, writes: The Chilians have begun bombardment of Callao and Chorillos. The Diplomatic body agreed that they could do nothing to protect threatened towns, and the only course open to them was to acknowledge a dispatch received from the Chilean Admiral demanding the surrender of the two Peruvian naval vessels. The Chilian authorities claim that the invading army will consist of 30,000 men, divided into brigades. Divisions are in number from 6000 to 7000 men, and to be accompanied by 800 cavalry and 25 Krupp cannon, giving a total cavalry force of 2000 sabres and 100 guns as their artillery. They hope to convert the flourishing Rimac valley, and city of Kings, which is its pride, into a howling wilderness. They did so in the south, and more recently in the north, where they have not only destroyed houses, machinery, and cane and cornfields, but cut down fruit trees. Animals of all classes have been carried off and killed, and trifling articles have been embarked at the same time as the more valuable sugar and rum.

CALIFORNIA.

Sacramento Dispatches.

SACRAMENTO, Oct 18.—The first instance of a lady being appointed a marshal of a political procession in California occurred here to-day. Miss Kate Cross, the daring horsewoman, was named by Marshal Bryte as one of his aids in the Republican procession of Thursday evening. She is to command a cavalcade of ladies.

The Railroad Commission met here Saturday, but though the notice was widespread, not a solitary person appeared to lodge any complaint against any railroad.

Arrival of the Presidential Party.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct 18.—The Presidential party arrived from Portland this morning about 6 o'clock and proceeded to their hotel. They leave this afternoon for Los Angeles.

DALLES NOTES.

(TRAVELING CORRESPONDENT OF THE OREGONIAN.)

THE DALLES, Oct 17, 1880.

E. P. Fitzgerald has moved to his substantial and elegant double front fire proof recently completed on Second street.

Michaelbach's new fire proof adjoining the post-office is being pushed ahead rapidly. It is three inches above the high water mark of '76.

The Masonic Hall is receiving its finishing touches, also Baldwin's fire proof on Main street. The average cost of these buildings is from $10,000 to $15,000 each.

Grant's new fire proof is rapidly approaching completion. Its dimensions are 46x120, two stories and basement. A wall of solid masonry will be constructed under the sidewalk extending around the building. The main floor will be three feet above the '76 high water mark.

The O. R. & N. Co. continue to make substantial improvements to their working facilities at this place. They have now under construction a new boiler shop 40x60 feet and a machine shop 110x60; also an elevated wall to be extended from the upper to the lower end of the incline reaching to the steamer landing is a measure of safety and convenience to passengers, especially during the coming dark winter [illegible]. The company will in two weeks have completed their powerful stationary engine with a separate and independent boiler for their large steam fire pump for the protection of their extensive works. An order has just been received at the shops for the immediate construction of 250 cars, 100 flat, 100 box, 10 stock and [illegible] combination mail, baggage and express cars; the last are to be of the latest approved model in iron and wood; only Washington territory and Oregon timber, consisting of fir, maple, oak, ash and white cedar, will be used in their construction. The plans for the cars will be from the new and original design prepared by the company [illegible]. The oak [illegible] Puget Sound [illegible] most durable for this purpose, far better than the eastern [illegible]; it will be largely used by this company so that farmers and others [illegible] the Sound who have tracts growing this class of timber should communicate at once with Mr [illegible], master mechanic of the company at this place. For the convenience of the public the company have opened a ticket office with baggage room [illegible] at the Umatilla House, where the trains arriving and departing now stop for passengers and baggage.

JOHN SHERMAN TO WADE HAMPTON.

The Secretary of the Treasury tells the Senator from South Carolina in Answer to Inquiries, Some Plain Homely Truths.

The Letter Responds by Flinging the Lie at Sherman, who Reiterates his Previous Words.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

WASHINGTON, Oct 18.—Secretary Sherman furnished for publication the following:

DAGGERS SPRINGS, Sept 17, 1880.

To Hon John Sherman, Secretary of the Treasury: Sir—Some days ago I saw a report of your speech at the conference held by the national republican committee at Fifth Avenue hotel, New York, and you were quoted as having used the following language: "And now you are asked to surrender all you have done into the hands of Wade Hampton and the Kuklux, and the little segment in the north that is called the democratic party." May I ask if you used these words, and if you did so did you mean to connect me directly or indirectly with what was known as the Kuklux Klan? Requesting an early reply, addressed to me, care of Augustus Schell, Esq., New York, I am very respectfully your obedient servant,

(Signed) WADE HAMPTON.

Secretary Sherman replied as follows:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept 21, 1880.

To Hon. Wade Hampton, care Augustus Schell, New York: Sir—Your note of the 17th inst. received, in which you inquire, etc. In reply I have to advise you that while I do not remember the precise language, I presume the reporter correctly stated in a condensed way his idea of what I said. I no doubt spoke of you as a leading representative of the democratic party in the south and referred to the Kuklux Klan as a representative of the barbarous agencies by which the democrats have subverted the civil and political rights of republicans of the south. I do not connect you personally with the Kuklux Klan. Indeed I know you had in one or two important instances resisted and deferred its worst impulse. I appreciate the sense of honor which makes you shrink from being named in connection with it. Still you and your associates, the leading men in the south, now enjoy the benefits of political power derived from the atrocities of the Kuklux Klan, in which phrase I include all the numerous aliases by which it has, from time to time, been known in the south. Your power in the southern states rests upon the actual crimes of every grade in the code of crimes, from murder to the meanest form of ballot-box stuffing, committed by the Kuklux Klan and its kindred associates, and as you know, some of the worst of them committed since '77, when you and they gave the most solemn assurances of protection to freedmen of the south. These crimes are all aimed at the civil and political rights of republicans in the south, and I believe but for these agencies, the state that you represent, as well as many other states in the south, would be represented both in the senate and the house by republicans. But for these crimes the boast attributed to you that the 138 solid southern votes would be cast for the democratic ticket, would be but idle vaporing. Now we feel it sober truth. While I have no reason to believe you or your northern associates personally participated in the offences I have named, yet while you and they enjoy the fruits of these crimes, you may in logic and morals be classed as I classed you, as joint partners with the Kuklux Klan, in the policy which thus far has been successful in seizing political power in the south and which it is hoped by the aid of a small segment of the democratic party in the north may be extended to all departments of the government. In this sense I spoke of you, the Kuklux Klan, and the northern democratic party.

Permit me in conclusion, while answering your questions, to say the most fatal policy for the south would be by such agencies as I have mentioned to secure again political ascendency in this country, for I assure you the manhood and independence of the north will certainly continue to struggle until every republican in the south shall have the free and unrestricted enjoyment of equal civil and political privileges. Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

JOHN SHERMAN.

Hampton rejoined as follows:

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Oct 1.

Sir—Your letter received, and as you do not disclaim the language to which I called your attention, I have only to say that in using it you uttered what was absolutely false and what you knew to be false. My address will be Columbia, South Carolina. I am your obedient servant,

WADE HAMPTON.

To Hon John Sherman.

TREASURY DEPT., WASHINGTON, Oct 7, 1880.

To Hon Wade Hampton, Columbia: I have to acknowledge the receipt of your note of the 1st inst., handed me unopened by Mr C McKinley a few minutes ago after my return from the west. I had this afternoon read what purported to be an extract of a speech made by you published in the Charleston News and Courier, and upon your general reputation as a gentleman had denied that you had made such speech or written such letter as is attributed to you in that paper. What I stated to you in my letter of September 21st I believe to be true, true, notwithstanding your denial, and it can be shown to be true by public records, and as a matter of history. As you had long before your letter was delivered to me, seen proper to make a public statement of your views of the correspondence, I will give it to the press without note or comment and let the public decide between us. Very respectfully,

JOHN SHERMAN.

AN ECLIPSE OF "THE SUN."

That is, of the New York "Sun," which though it Boasts it "Shines for All" Takes a Gloomy View of the Democratic Situation.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

NEW YORK, Oct 18.—The Sun has a remarkable editorial under the heading "No Mincing Matters," whereof the following are extracts: The democrats have sustained an unexpected and mortifying defeat in Indiana and Ohio. It is disastrous and may prove fatal. It is silly to make light of it and idle to try to whittle it away by cunning calculations and adroit figuring. The democrats are beaten, badly beaten; whether beaten to death or not is the only question. It has seemed to us that the whole Democratic campaign was a series of blunders. The party had one man (only one) whose immense strength had been demonstrated on the national field—Samuel J Tilden. It is the one great, preeminent name in the democratic party. He was a reformer indeed, as his record in the office of governor had proven; he was a statesman, as all his public papers, especially his letter declining to compete for the nomination, had emphatically shown. Childless like Washington, he had only his country to love, and even ties of kindred were ruthlessly sundered by his stern and unrelenting hand if the faintest blush of improper practice rested upon them. So patriotic, so lofty, so convincing was his great letter to the convention which made the nomination that the most adroit, the ablest of his enemies, after reading it avowed his disposition to support him. This illustrious man the democratic party thought it could dispense with as a candidate. There is a word of one syllable with two o's in it which might not inappropriately be inserted here. The party nominated Gen Hancock, a good man, weighing 250 pounds, but Hancock is not Tilden.

Then, as a crowning act of folly, the party went into the state of Thomas A Hendricks and took another man for vice president. Any name other than that of Hendricks would have been folly enough, but to go one step further, they had to take a man with the most odious reputation as a skinflint to overcome. There used to be a fellow who made an occupation of butting his head against a rough stone New England wall for 25 cents. The democratic party, in making this nomination, resembled him, only if report be true, they did not get the 25 cents. Now we are for looking the actual facts squarely in the face. Who cannot do that without flinching in defeat and disaster as well as in victory, has no manhood in his make. We are beaten, we are overthrown, but we are not destroyed. The disaster we have experienced may yet be retrieved.

NOTES FROM BROWNSVILLE.

[OCCASIONAL CORRESPONDENT OF THE OREGONIAN.]

BROWNSVILLE, Oct 18, 1880.

J B Irvine has purchased the Brownsville hotel and expects to enlarge and greatly improve the same soon.

The railroad company have the timber framed here for a warehouse six miles below, and it is now almost completed.

Mr Standish will soon build a new blacksmith shop on the site of his old shop, which has been used as such for 20 years.

The railroad company have built a warehouse here, and have 20,000 bushels of wheat stored. A new cleaner is being put in and the engine is all ready for work.

Our streets were enlivened by a runaway last week. Mr Hausman's team took fright while being hitched to a wagon and ran into lumber yard, where one of the horses was killed by running into a pile of lumber.

Ex Governor Gibbs spoke here Saturday evening and the occasion was a republican boom for Garfield and Arthur. The band serenaded the Governor at his hotel and escorted him to Bishop's hall, where anvil salutes were fired. The Halsey glee club gave some stirring campaign music, after which Peter Hume, president of the Garfield and Arthur club, introduced the speaker. He took the stand, which was handsomely decorated with flowers; the audience, which filled every seat, applauded the speaker heartily. The Governor held the undivided attention of his audience for over two hours, and the manner in which he refuted the arguments of Col Larabee and J. M. Draper caused considerable excitement among the democrats.

The victories of Indiana and Ohio were heartily cheered, as were Garfield and Arthur. This is the first republican speech of the campaign here and I regret that I am unable to give a synopsis of the arguments. The republicans are jubilant and [illegible].

Simon offered the following protest:

We the undersigned members of the senate of the state of Oregon from Multnomah county do hereby enter our solemn protest against the passage of S. B. [illegible], being a bill for an act to grant to the Oregonian Railway Company limited the right of way and station grounds over the state lands and terminal facilities upon the public grounds of the city of Portland, which bill passed the senate on Oct 16, 1880, for the following reasons, to wit:

First. Because it is attempted by the passage of said bill to grant to said Oregonian Railway Company limited, a foreign corporation doing business within this state solely by virtue of the comity of this state, the tract of land within the city of Portland known as the public levee, which tract of land contains only three acres, exceeding in value the sum of $40,000, and is owned in fee simple by said city of Portland, without requiring compensation of any kind to be made by said corporation to the city.

Second. Because said act is in violation of the constitution of this State in this, that it attempts to confer special privileges upon a private corporation and a corporation which is wholly owned and controlled by foreign capital.

Third. Because said bill by special act attempts to grant to said Oregonian Railway Company limited the right to use and lay tracks of its railway along and across the various streets of the city of Portland without requiring it to obtain the consent of the municipal authorities of said city therefor, and without requiring it to comply with the provisions of chapter 7 of the miscellaneous laws of this state, which all other corporations engaged in like interference of necessity must comply with.

Fourth. Because the passage of said bill is denounced by the citizens and taxpayers of Portland, who have almost universally remonstrated and protested against its passage as an attempt to wrongfully wrest from the city of Portland a very large portion of its valuable property which is owned and held by it in fee simple, and to donate the same to a private corporation against the earnest protest of said city.

Fifth. Because the passage of said bill or one similar in character is unprecedented in the history of American legislation. And we also enter our solemn protest against the action of the majority in ordering the main question to be put immediately upon the reading of the bill, thereby preventing all discussion on its merits or demerits, and the haste in which a measure of such vital importance to the city of Portland was rushed through the senate.

SOL HIRSCH,
JOSEPH SIMON,
A. W. WATERS.

McConnell presented a similar protest on the same subject.

The special committee to which was referred the Governor's message relating to the appointment of two regents for the university, B. F. Dorris and E. R. Geary, recommended that said appointments be confirmed.

Simon moved a division of the question.

Fulton moved that E. R. Geary be confirmed.

Burch moved the confirmation of B. F. Dorris.

Fulton—I would not vote for Mr Dorris because he is a man of prejudiced opinions and so immoderately expresses those opinions that when the president of the United States passed by Eugene he refused to honor or recognize him as such, and called him a "fraud."

[illegible] thought that Hayes was elected by fraud, and was sure that all liberal republicans would admit that he was improperly elected.

McConnell reviewed the remarks of the previous gentleman, and said that it would have been a good thing for the country if Buchanan had been such a fraud.

On a vote the motion to confirm the appointment of B. F. Dorris was lost.

Cochran moved the appointment of E. R. Geary.

Recess.

Afternoon Session.

The senate was called to order at 2 P. M. by the president.

Roll was called; quorum present.

A communication from H. D. Sanborn, commissioner from this state to act in conjunction with commissioners of the Pennsylvania agricultural society at the international exhibition for the display of wool products held at Philadelphia last month, stating that first prizes were awarded to Oregon Merino and Cotswold wools; also a communication from the department of agriculture, asking information as to sheep and wool to be embodied in a report under direction of act of congress.

It was recommended that one from the senate and one from the house be appointed to act in conjunction here in the matter of getting statistics on said subject.

Waters, of the committee on commerce, presented a report on S. B. 82, to provide for interchange traffic by common carriers, and recommending that it do not pass, as prejudicial to the interests of commerce. No railroads of the same gauge existed wherein such legislation could be deemed necessary. It would be a violation of private vested rights, and so wholly unjust in its operations as would compel one railroad to receive and transport cars of other corporations or persons, whether loaded or empty, over their entire line of road. It seems to be the design to permit a corporation engaged in the transportation business to carry traffic over another road already constructed, and to permit one company to acquire full use and benefit of the railroad of another company without contributing a farthing towards the cost of construction of such road.

Clow offered a minority report as a substitute report, moving its adoption; lost.

Waters moved the adoption of the majority report; motion lost.

President Hirsch left his chair, which was temporarily filled by Apperson, of Clackamas.

Hirsch moved to order the two reports printed, as there was so much discussion about the subject.

McConnell moved to amend to strike out the word "rate" in section 2, line 2, of the printed bill, and said: Mr President, this is an innocent looking bill, and it is supported by honest and innocent looking people, and if the senate amends the bill by striking out that one word "rate," I think it will be a good bill; but as it is, with that one word as originally grafted on, it is a bad bill for my constituents. There is being an effort made to get the entire railroad management of this state under the control of one corporation. For that purpose freights on the river have been reduced to $1 per ton from any point on the Willamette. To compete with that opposition, and get their share of the freights, the railroads have had to reduce rates at the points brought in competition. Now, Mr President, I contend that this is legitimate. Suppose any senator on this floor had three stores; he would be entitled to a certain per cent on his sales as a legitimate profit; but suppose opposition was brought to bear at one of those points, and he was obliged to reduce his profits below a fair profit, would any senator claim that having reduced the price at one store, he should at all the others? Such an idea would be absurd, yet such is the proposition embodied in this bill. This company or another may build a bob-tailed road in Yamhill county, and because the Western Oregon railroad is compelled to take freight from Corvallis at $1, they can compel them to take freight from them at a pro rata rate. This, Mr President, would be an effectual method of forcing the weak companies to succumb to the storm, and in a short time one corporation would own the entire railroad system of the state. I hope this amendment will be adopted. The time has not arrived for regulating freight. With a magnificent river running through our valley we need not fear exorbitant rates of either freight or passage. On motion, the amendment offered by McConnell was adopted.

Fulton—This is a most objectionable bill. It gives a small, inconsequential company engaged in transportation the privilege of using 500 miles of another company. They may build a mile and a half, and their running gear be of inferior order, their cars being constructed of such poor material that it may be dangerous to the public, but only the same rates are to be charged as over this small road. It is nefarious in its propositions. It certainly emanates from some interested person who probably has some small road and wants to take advantage of the business of an old established railroad.

Bilyeu spoke in favor of the bill, saying it was protection to the new roads which may be built in the future. It is a simple proposition. It only means that freight on one railroad shall be forwarded or passed over the lines of other railroads at the same rates. Now is there anything difficult in this question? It is a good bill and should be passed.

Smith reviewed the action of the grangers in passing a similar law which proved foolish and ineffectual. The legislature cannot fix the rate or use such authority. A railroad company understands what the proper rates are better than we do. I am opposed to this bill.

Clow spoke until his time expired, and in a very strong and graphic manner presented the arguments in favor of the passage of the bill, contending that it was manifestly for the interest of the people and against railroad monopoly.

President Hirsch read a few extracts from the Oregon Pacific railroad company's prospectus, printed and distributed in the east and New York by said company for the purpose of deluding and humbugging the people into investing. He severely criticised the figures and language of said report, contending that it was a most apparent fraud, strengthening his assertions by comparisons. It was a vivid and most convincing argument against the passage of said bill.

The discussion became general. The senators all presented their opinions in favor of and against it.

On motion of Hirsch it was indefinitely postponed.

On motion of Apperson H. J. R. [illegible], providing that the school for mutes receive $200 for each student attending such school, was adopted.

Recess till 7:30 P. M.

Evening Session.

The senate was called to order at 7:30 o'clock P. M.

On motion of Waldo the committee on public lands reported a substitute for S. J. M. 2, praying that certain lands on the Columbia river, donated in 1864 to the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, be restored to the public domain for the benefit of settlers, said lands being between Kalama and Wallula on the Columbia river, a distance of 275 miles in length and 80 miles in width, or 1,480,000 acres.

This enormous amount of public lands had been tied up fifteen years awaiting construction of the N. P. R. R.

Waldo moved the adoption of the report; adopted.

Haines offered a resolution that the senate, the house concurring, adjourn on Friday, October 22d, at 11 A. M.; lost.

MEMORIALS.

[illegible] presented a memorial, praying the passage of the following bills, now pending before congress: For relief of citizens of the state of Oregon on account of destruction of property by hostile Indians; a bill to reduce the expenses of taking pre-emptions and homesteads; a bill providing for the extension of the Oregon and California railroad; a bill declaring the [illegible]

[illegible]

House.

The house met at 10 A. M., [illegible] present. The session was opened with prayer by Rev. J. [illegible]. The motion to dispense with the reading of the journal was carried.

H. B. 17—To prevent the sale of spirituous liquors [illegible] within four miles of any premises on which [illegible] were being constructed; read second time and referred to the judiciary committee.

H. B. 12?—Amending section [illegible] of title [illegible] chapter [illegible]; read second time and rejected.

H. B. 125—Amending sections 6, 7 and 18, title [illegible], relating to counties; read second time and referred to committee on counties.

H. B. 116—To prescribe the duties of road supervisors; read second time and referred to the committee on roads and highways.

H. B. 136—To provide for the publication and distribution of the supreme court reports; read second time and referred to the judiciary committee.

H. B. 131—To provide for the registration of voters in cities containing fifteen thousand or more inhabitants; read second time and referred to the committee on [illegible].

H. B. 130—To regulate and protect the practice of medicine, surgery, midwifery and the healing art in all its varied departments in this state; read a second time and referred to the committee on education.

H. B. 1[illegible]—To prescribe the fees of witnesses in courts of record and justices' courts; read a second time and referred to the committee on judiciary.

H. B. 1[illegible]—To make warehouse receipts negotiable; read a second time and referred to the committee on roads and highways.

H. B. 138—To provide for the reduction of the state indebtedness by the payment of a portion thereof with the proceeds from the sale of swamp lands; read a second time and referred to the committee on ways and means.

H. B. 139—To provide for holding teachers' institutes in the several counties of this state; read a second time and referred to the committee on education.

H. B. 140—To amend the act to establish a uniform course of instruction in the common schools of this state; read second time and referred to the committee on education.

H. B. [illegible]—To refund the war debt and maintain the public credit; read a third time.

The question being, "Shall the bill pass?" Lawrence said he believed the bill was unconstitutional. It was not correct legislation and he would therefore vote against it.

The vote stood—ayes 48, noes 6, absent 6.

So the bill passed.

The title was amended to read "a bill for an act to refund the war debt, maintain the public credit and to levy a tax and appropriate money therefor."

S. B. 1[illegible]—To provide for construction of fish ladders on navigable streams was read a first time.

S. B. 2[illegible]—A bill to protect salmon; read first time.

S. B. 41—To dispose of the unfinished branch mint building at the Dalles, read first time, rule suspended and bill read second time, rule further suspended and bill read third time.

Mr Thompson was called to the speaker's chair.

Mr Moody explained the character of the bill and gave good reasons for its passage, and the bill passed; ayes 51, noes 0, absent 9.

On motion of Minto the house took a recess till 1:30 P. M.

Afternoon Session.

S. B. [illegible]—To regulate the price of the lands known as the 500,000 acre grant, was read twice and referred to the committee on public lands.

S. B. 6—For relief of W. W. Buck; read first time.

S. B. 5[illegible]—Granting right of way and station grounds to the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company, was read three times and passed.

S. B. 1[illegible]—To incorporate the town of Pendleton; read first time.

S. B. 23—Prescribing duties of road supervisors; read first time.

S. B. [illegible]—To prevent disturbance of religious meetings; read first time.

S. B. 111—Changing the name of the town of Linn[illegible]; read first time.

S. B. 112—Changing time of holding county courts; read first time.

House concurred in S. C. M. for aid for Dalles & Cascades Locks and Canal.

S. B. [illegible]—Authorizing regents of state university to grant teachers' diplomas; read first time.

House refused to concur in S. J. R. for committee to revise assessment law.

House refused to concur in S. J. R. 3 for relief of purchasers of property sold under execution against [illegible] bondsmen of S. F. May.

S. B. [illegible]—Amending criminal code so as to allow defendants to testify in their own behalf; read first time.

S. B. [illegible]—Amending the code relating to writs of attachment.

S. B. [illegible]—For relief of Umatilla county; read first time.

House concurred in S. J. M. 6, asking aid in constructing a harbor of refuge at Port Orford.

S. C. R. 7, providing for purchase of portraits of ex-governors and of Governor Thayer, was read.

Minto moved to concur.

Yates moved to lay on table.

Minto spoke in opposition to laying on table; withdrawn.

Biles read a report of the minority embodying his views of the resolution.

Yates said it was but proper that Mr Bush should cover his salary into the treasury, and if he wanted to donate valuable pictures he could draw his salary and do so.

Lawrence denounced it as an attempt to gain a little cheap notoriety, and said it could not be done without allowing Mr Bush to draw his salary, and if he liked he could donate the pictures to the state.

Wadsworth, Plummer, Yates, Barrett, Waggoner, Zumwalt and others took the same ground.

Wilson supported the resolution, as unless the state took the pictures Mr Bush would not relinquish his claim to the salary. The state could take the pictures or nothing.

The motion to concur was lost; ayes, 8, noes 41, absent [illegible].

S. J. R. 9, for a committee to inquire into the condition of the cases of the state vs. Chadwick, was indefinitely postponed.

BILLS READ FIRST TIME.

S. B. 71—Amending the charter of Corvallis.

S. B. 8[illegible]—Fixing times for holding supreme, circuit and county courts.

S. B. 5[illegible]—Amending the law relating to sales of real estate for delinquent taxes.

S. B. 1[illegible]—To prevent tugboats discriminating between vessels.

S. B. 14—Defining boundaries of mining claims.

S. B. 5[illegible]—For the relief of Union county.

S. B. 2[illegible]—Requiring clerks and sheriffs to make annual returns to the secretary of state.

S. B. 6—To establish and protect the rights of married women, read three times under suspension of rules and passed; ayes, 45, noes —.

S. B. 72—To prevent the sale of liquors to minors; read first time.

Recess till 7:30 P. M.

Evening Session.

The house met at 7:30 P. M., the speaker in the chair. Roll was called, 57 members present.

Communication from H. D. Sanborn in relation to the exhibition of Oregon wools in the agricultural department of the United States.

Minto was appointed as commissioner for such purpose on the part of the house.

Galloway moved a suspension of rules and that S. B. 69, granting the right of way, etc., to the Oregonian Railway Company, be taken up and read first time; carried; bill read first time.

Yates moved a further suspension of the rules and that the bill be read a second time by title; carried, and bill read second time by title.

Kelly moved to make the bill the special order for 10 A. M. to-morrow.

Yates moved to make it the special order for this evening.

Lawrence—In order that this injustice may be perpetrated at once I move to suspend the rules and put the bill on its passage now.

Wagner thought the intention of the enemies of the bill was to get more time to give the lobby another chance at them.

Kelly only wanted to examine the bill.

Taylor did not know anything about the bill, whether it was good or bad. No man could tell what was in the bill from hearing it read once.

Galloway said the bill was similar to the one passed by the house, and asked that the bill be read for information.

Lawrence—The motion of the gentleman from Multnomah is mistaken as to the proper way to legislate for corporations. The proper way is to suspend the rule first, second and third times, and pass the bill by the vote which has been determined upon beforehand, read by title every time. That is the way to legislate for corporations.

Meyer said the bill was amended before the house, and that they might know what the amendments were, a few members asked to have it printed, but this was denied. Now the same bill comes from the senate in the amended form, and they only asked one night to examine it.

Lawrence insisted on his motion to suspend the rules and read the bill third time by title.

Bill was read for information.

Yates moved to suspend the rules and read bill third time. Carried.

Ayes—52.

Noes—Biles, Meyer, Plummer, Smith of Marion, Thompson, Wilson, Worcester, Mr Speaker.

Absent—Lawrence, Schooling, Taylor.

So the bill was read third time.

Thompson moved the call of the house. Carried.

All present but Taylor.

The question being, shall the bill pass? when Laughlin's name was called he said this bill grants to this railroad a privilege which no other company ever asked. It is against my convictions, but the petition of the citizens of my county have instructed, and while I protest against it I vote aye.

Biles said: I am in favor of giving the narrow gauge all the rights to lands of the state, but not to private property or property belonging to the city of Portland.

Lawrence would vote "no" because the house had declared it did not know who owned the property, and he would not stultify himself. It was wrong and unconstitutional, a piece of absurdity legislation, and he was opposed to it from beginning to end.

Minto had agreed to an amended house bill but there were assertions in the preamble that he could not say were true, and he would therefore vote no.

Meyer said he would vote against the bill because he believed the city of Portland owned the property in fee simple.

Plummer had expressed himself in favor of giving all the rights the state had, but would not vote to give away property which he believed did not belong to the state.

Thompson said he would vote against the bill because he could not see that anything could be made by violating a principle of right, as he believed this bill to be wrong.

Sharp was opposed to the bill because it was legislation in favor of a corporation that would break its promises and oppress the people as other corporations had done.

Worcester was opposed to the bill because the house by a bill passed to-day had required another company to pay $10 per acre for lands and this company wanted it for nothing.

The bill passed: ayes 41; noes, Biles, Bird, Lawrence, Meyer, Minto, Montgomery, Plummer, Sharp, Stanley, Thompson, Wilbur, Wills, Wilson, Worcester, Mr Speaker, 15; absent, Taylor.

S. B. 51—To enable Dalles City to convey certain lots to the Wasco Independent Academy. Read three times and passed.

H. B. 3[illegible]—Amending the law relating to mining claims. Read third time and passed.

Adjourned.

Professor Benjamin Peirce, the celebrated mathematician of Harvard, died at Boston on the 6th of October, aged 71 years.

CONCERNING THE LEGISLATURE.

OREGON CITY, Oct 1[illegible], 1880.

To the Editor of the Oregonian:

I wish to call the attention of the people of our state through the columns of your paper, which is the only one universally read in Oregon, to the assiduous and masterly inactivity of the majority of our legislators, regarding the matters on which the people demand legislation, and of the destruction of a few of the most vital questions affecting the state at the present time. Some by trading votes have played into the hands of grasping corporations and show either their ignorance or their venality, while others have manifested their incompetency by passing the clerks' and sheriffs' bill, which will more than double in all instances, excepting in Linn county, the compensation they now receive. The legislature is now at its close, and what can the republican party, which has a strong majority, show for the time and money spent? The people demanded the repeal of the indebtedness clause in the assessment law. Has it been done? They demanded new and better road laws. Has their demand been complied with? They demanded a reduction of the compensation for clerks and sheriffs, and they have succeeded in increasing them. Under the old law these officers furnished their own deputies and their own legal blanks, but now the deputies and blanks are to be paid for by the counties, and the officers will only work eight hours per day. Either the work will accumulate in the offices or there will be more deputies needed than the new law provided, and the people must pay. For the money hitherto received these officers have often worked far into the night, but can they be compelled to do so now without extra pay? It is evident that the compensation has been increased because the clerks and sheriffs lobbied for the bill, and some who voted for it are known to be applicants for those positions two years hence. The county that paid the most outrageous figures for the work done—Multnomah—was exempted in this bill. Altogether it is a fine accomplishment. What was done in the senate regarding the amendment to the assessment law? Enough to have carried the bill, had they voted for it; but members who voted with the majority against it acknowledged that the bill was good, but they wanted "to sit down upon" some who had opposed, or would not promise to support some of their pet measures. And this childish action has obtained in many instances. Now how do we stand in the eyes of the people of Oregon? We (the republicans) have two majority in the senate, but Cochran, the obstructionist, manages to prevent legislation notwithstanding. In the house we have twenty majority, but Lawrence, another democrat, in accordance with his threat to "see that the republicans would make a —— fine record at a great expense to the state," manages to retard everything, and the twenty majority are seemingly powerless to prevent it, and appearances point strongly that Mr Lawrence will succeed in giving us "a —— fine record." Let the members amend the laws as the people demand. Introducing bills and making a weak fight for them, or passing unconstitutional ones, will not be redeeming the pledges we made last May. Members have a trust imposed upon them, and that must not be violated for their own personal feelings. How can we go before the people two years hence? Can we make promises again? Or must we whine and say that had it not been for Cochran and Lawrence we would have done as the people demanded? Results were confidently expected, and nothing but results will satisfy the people. This legislature will cost fifteen or twenty thousand dollars, and nothing of importance has been done except to pass the woman suffrage resolution, etc., etc. Members should not adjourn until some of the more important pledges to the people, at least, have been redeemed, or woe be to the republican party in this state two years hence. From the appearance of both houses, and judging of their weakness in point of intellect by the time wasted and nothing accomplished, it is very evident that another regime should take hold and "fix up the slate" for next election, as it is certain that weaker managers could not be found than we have lately suffered under.

FROM THE NORTH.

Miscellaneous Items from Alaska.

PORT TOWNSEND, Oct 18.—The steamer California, which arrived here last night from Sitka, brings news to the 12th inst. Paul Schulze, president of the Northwest Trading company, was a passenger from Sitka, but was detained on official business in Victoria. He reports that the same promises made to Major Morris and Capt Beardslee by the Chilcat and other tribes of Indians were repeated to him. He and Lieut Symonds of the Jamestown ascended the Chilcat river ten miles above the upper village to a point never before reached by white men. They were well and hospitably received. The Northwest Trading company have established three trading posts and are preparing to establish two more. Commander Glass is exceedingly popular in his new post. The sanitary condition of the Jamestown is good.

Mr Schulze and Lieut Symonds say that the course of the Chilcat river is from west to east magnetic, and not from north to south, as previously reported, which proves that the upper Chilcat village lies in Alaska and not in the British possessions as claimed by the latter.

Horace Hall and party are awaiting the arrival of Superintendent Pilz before commencing operations on the Henrietta and Mary Anne mines.

The California brought down 90 Chinamen and 40 white miners from the Cassiar mines, who report the mines almost exhausted. She also brought down $10,000 in treasure.

James McNeil was shot by James Pool on Elk creek on Saturday of last week and died next morning from the effects of the wound. McNeil was an aged man and Pool is a young man but 19 years old. The shooting was deliberate, the assailant going three miles for a pistol with which to commit the deed. He is under arrest, awaiting trial.

IT IS WORTH A TRIAL.

"I was troubled for many years with Kidney Complaint, Gravel, &c.; my blood became thin; I was dull and inactive; could hardly crawl about, and was an old worn out man all over, and could get nothing to help me, until I got Hop Bitters, and now I am a boy again. My blood and kidneys are all right, and I am as active as a man of 30, although I am 72, and I have no doubt it will do as well for others of my age. It is worth the trial.—(Father.)

TUESDAY MORNING OCT 19 1880

THE BLACK MAN'S CHANCE IN VIRGINIA.

Our dispatches have for weeks past contained many statements in relation to the political situation in Virginia. It is a situation which is giving the politicians who are managing the democratic campaign no little concern. For the split in the democratic party in Virginia divides that party into two equal, or nearly equal parts and there is intense hostility between them. Each faction has its full list of candidates in the field, and separate electoral tickets. The electors on both tickets are pledged to Hancock, but the fear is that the republicans, by making a vigorous push may run their electoral ticket in between the other two, and carry the state for Garfield. Of this, however, we do not think there is any real probability, unless the managers of the Mahone party—the party of the democratic irregulars—lend aid to the republican effort in order to revenge themselves on their democratic adversaries. This seems to be really feared in democratic circles. But even if the republicans do not get the electoral vote of the state, it is almost certain that in the triangular fight they will elect three or four members of congress—a result which will, with the gains already made, give the republicans control of the next house of representatives. The elections in Ohio and Indiana greatly increase this probability. Altogether, therefore, the political situation in Virginia is highly interesting.

From quite another point of view it excites attention. It appears to open the way to give the colored voters a chance, no matter what faction might win. The democratic quarrel is a quarrel between the bourbon funders and the repudiating readjusters. It has become bitter and acrimonious, to the last degree. The warfare of these factions upon each other has taught them that the negro is a man and a brother, and that the white republican, instead of being a "scallawag, is a pretty good fellow after all. Particularly the readjusters have taken ground in favor of the political rights of the hitherto proscribed republicans. The latter are not making any part of the record of Virginia on the side of repudiation; but they know that the full and valid recognition of their political rights by a powerful section of the old democratic party of the state is in itself a great and improved order of things, and they are naturally grateful for the favor, even though it comes from the repudiating wing of the democratic party.

Eastern republican journals do not deny that the bourbon funders, or, as they call themselves, the regular conservative democracy, have the best end of the stick, so far as the main issue is involved. They propose to make a satisfactory compromise with the holders of the state bonds, while the readjusters advocate a method of settlement which amounts to a virtual repudiation of the bulk of the debt. But on the other hand, the funders vauntingly proclaim themselves the white man's party and declare that they will appoint no negro delegates to congressional or other conventions, nor sit with them in such bodies will not elect them to any office or appoint them on any committees, nor in any other way recognize them as political equals. They do not seek to evade the charge that they are bitterly proscriptive, and that they gather up and embody in their political methods all soured and envenomed social prejudice against the negro that still exists in the old commonwealth. Gen. Mahone, who leads the opposing faction, has pursued the contrary policy and succeeded in making a close alliance with the negroes in every part of the state. He prompted the selection of a number of impartial republicans for the office of county judges, and there is now no complaint of injustice done the negroes in the name of law. Colored men are now frequently selected to sit on juries, and they are allowed something like an equal voice in the administration of county affairs. The school fund of the state has been applied to the benefit of blacks and whites alike; colored teachers who were swindled by the preceding bourbon administration have been paid the money due them, and several hundred additional schools have been opened in the negro districts. Gen. Mahone and all his prominent leaders have promised to secure the repeal of the obnoxious poll tax law, which practically disfranchises thousands of colored men. In a word, the rascally readjusters, while they avow their purpose to swindle the creditors of the state, appear determined in good faith to make the black men of Virginia the political equals of the whites.

In this we have another forcible illustration of the stupendous providence that marches to its ends over the selfish purposes and intrigues of men, making bad intentions constantly produce good results. In this southern question of ours there have been numerous exemplifications of this truth. As secession, which was undertaken to save slavery destroyed it, so immoral political schemes since pursued in the southern part of the union are laying the foundation on which equal rights shall be surely built and maintained. Thus the spirit of progress, which tends always towards justice, though wrought out by man as the instrument and while acting in the capacity of a free agent, is often wholly independant of the will of man. His baser passions are often as powerful instruments of progress as his nobler, for avarice drives on the intellect as effectually as benevolence, hate as love, and it would be easy to show from historical proofs that selfishness has actually done more for the progress of mankind than philanthropy. All the churches and clergymen in Virginia have failed to make a diversion in favor of the negro on the ground of his common humanity, and have failed to secure for him protection and fair treatment in the name of religion. The United States government has given up in despair the task of securing to the blacks the exercise of their civil and political rights. But when at last the selfish ambition of political leaders is enlisted on the side of justice and fair play, the proscribed and despised race rises at once into the generous air of free citizenship, and goes forward safely and peacefully in the discharge of its political duties.

There is still another consequence. It has been well said that the movement in Virginia not only promises to abolish the malignant regime of intimidation and tissue ballots—it presages the rapid dissolution of the democratic party at the north, and its re-formation on a higher plane. When the local factions and parties in the south once take the fatal step of bidding against each other for the negro vote, the south at once ceases to be of any political value to the democratic party of the north. Its ability, on occasions like the present canvass, to throw into national issues its tremendous weight of 138 solid votes, is all that commends it to the democratic leaders at the north, when that is withdrawn, the whole fabric incontinently tumbles. Let the northern states beat this tremendous force of 138 solid votes now, and the end of old politics is at hand, and new politics will begin. And let republicans of Oregon see that the weight of their state goes with a bound into the scale.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT.

Both houses have adopted the resolution relating to the proposed change of the constitution of the state so as to authorize woman suffrage. In the regular way the resolution would now go to the next legislative assembly, and if approved again by both houses would be submitted for judgment to the legal voters of the state. As it now stands there is, however, one difficulty. The constitution of the state, article sixteen, section two provides that "while an amendment or amendments which shall have been agreed upon by our legislative assembly shall be awaiting the action of a legislative assembly or of the electors, no additional amendment or amendments shall be proposed." The legislative assembly of 1878 agreed upon two amendments—one to increase the pay of members of the assembly and to extend the time allotted to the session from forty to sixty days and the other to abolish the office of state printer and let the state printing to the lowest bidder. As both of these amendments are now pending, it would seem not to be within the province of the legislative assembly to propose any more, till these are first disposed of. We are unable to see how the conclusion can be avoided that this state of the case invalidates the action taken on the woman suffrage amendment. The truth is the framers of our constitution erected every possible obstacle in the way of changing it. It has been in operation now for nearly twenty two years and no effort to change it in any particular has as yet been successful. About the only method through which it can be reached is a constitutional convention.

That was a mighty cold snow storm that broke in on genial Indian summer weather in Wisconsin, Minnesota Dakota and Nebraska a day or two ago, and it chilled the population all their jaws clung together and the cold reached the very marrow of their bones. But it was nothing to the gelid blast from Ohio and Indiana the other day, which sent its sharp sleet of icy arrows through and through the anatomy of the democratic gentlemen of Oregon, who had been engaging for some months in the pleasing employment of claiming for themselves the federal offices of this state and figuring on the emoluments. It was an awful chill—one of those things which freeze the genial current of the soul. It may not wholly unman the victims, but it unpostmasters and decollectorizes not a few of them.

Just before the October elections there was a lull in business in the eastern cities. In the midst of an era of magnificent prosperity, doubt and apprehension took the place of confidence. There was fear of democratic and confederate success in November—a natural dread that a party was coming into power which would introduce disorder into the finances and currency of the country and do great injury to the credit of the government. But immediately after the October elections there was a notable change. A dispatch which we printed yesterday from New York stated that everything was booming, with enormous transactions, and that government securities had advanced sharply in value. It is alike curious and instructive to observe that business regards itself as in danger where there is a prospect of democratic rule.

We have to day by telegraph a most mournful wail from that chief of democratic organs, the New York, Sun. It is candid enough to admit a great and unexpected disaster in Ohio and Indiana, and it is full of fears and forebodings about the ultimate result. Its eulogy upon Mr. Tilden reads like a lamentation ending with those saddest of words, "It might have been." As for General Hancock, he is "a good man, weighing two hundred and fifty pounds." The hopelessness of the democratic campaign could not be more plainly confessed than in this article by the Sun.

It is certain that the republican parade to-night will be an immense affair. It will be great beyond anything ever before witnessed in Oregon. Such a demonstration can not fail to increase greatly the already awakened enthusiasm of the republican party, which is getting ready to push the republican majority in the state up to the highest point ever reached by a majority gained for any party.

As it was foreordained that the levee grab was to be consummated, in so far as the legislature could do it, it is as well to have it over. Now if the character of the governor has not been much misunderstood, he will veto the iniquity.

Four per cents of the United States are now quoted at 112⅞ in London. Two weeks ago they were quoted at 111¼. The difference of one and five eighths is a little indication of the view taken of our elections abroad.

Democratic cabinet makers are not constructing cabinets for Gen. Hancock as much as they were.

CITY.

Additional Locals on 4th Page.

TERRIBLE FALL.—A valuable team belonging to a St. Lawrence, attached to a wagon, backed off the [illegible] street bridge in East Portland yesterday, at a point a short distance east of the railroad. The team was standing near the livery stable, which is situated on the north side of the bridge, when, from some cause, the animals commenced to back. The wagon struck the railing of the bridge with such force as to cause it to give way, and was precipitated over the edge, drawing the team after. Horses and wagon came down in one heap, falling a distance of [illegible] feet. One of the animals was killed outright, and the other severely injured. The horse which was killed was a valuable one, being estimated at [illegible]. The wagon was badly damaged.

UNWARRANTED CENSURE.—Mention was made in the Sunday Mercury of the upsetting of a hack near [illegible] dock, last Thursday morning, and of two [illegible] receiving painful injuries by the accident. [illegible] paper, in speaking of the accident, attributes the occurrence to the fact that the dock was insufficiently lighted, and attaches all the blame to the O. R. & N. Co. On investigation of the matter we learn [illegible] while was capsized between the railroad and [illegible] dock; that the accident was the result of carelessness on the part of the driver; that it was in no [illegible] the fault of the O. R. & N. Co., and that [illegible] censure received is not warranted by the facts [illegible] the case. This statement is made simply as an [illegible] of justice to the company.

ANOTHER PIONEER GONE.—Our regular correspondent, writing from Albany under date of the [illegible] inst., sends the following: "Benjamin Freeland, a native of Maryland, a resident for many years of Indiana, and since 1853 a citizen of Linn county, Oregon, died on Friday evening last at the residence of his son, Dr. B. R. Freeland, in Albany. Uncle Freeland, as he was familiarly called, was a soldier in the war of 1812, and has ever taken an active interest in the welfare of his country. Having seen his children's children to the fourth generation, he died in full possession of faith in the [illegible] Redeemer, being in the 87th year of his age. Thus one by one the veterans pass away."

[illegible] RATIFICATION AT SALEM.—Vigorous preparations are going forward for the grand ratification [illegible] in Salem Thursday evening, the 21st inst. [illegible] Albany ladies' band will be a great attraction. Professor Prentice of Portland will sing a stirring suffrage song; Miss Dora McCord will render a [illegible] violin solo, and many Salem ladies will assist in the music. Patriotic ratification speeches [illegible] the best speakers in the state. Resolutions, [illegible] and congratulations will also be the order of [illegible] evening. Half fare on all trains, good till Saturday, the [illegible], has been secured. A grand time is anticipated.

[illegible] OF LARCENY.—In the state circuit court [illegible] afternoon the case of State of Oregon vs. [illegible] was on trial. The defendant is a young woman aged about 18 years. Some time [illegible] entered the house of her aunt, during the absence of the latter, and carried away a hat and [illegible]. She was arrested on a charge of larceny from [illegible] and indicted by the grand jury. At the conclusion of the trial the jury retired for a short [illegible] a verdict of larceny was returned.

DEMOCRATIC DEMONSTRATION.—Last evening, Mr. [illegible] Autenrieth of Jackson county, addressed a [illegible] and enthusiastic gathering at Leonard's Hall, [illegible] of A and First streets. Mr. Autenreith was escorted by the Hancock clubs from his hotel to the hall, headed by a band of music, each member bearing a torch. At the close of the speaking, the clubs marched through several of the streets and then to their respective halls.

[illegible] SPEAKING.—Hon. M. C. George writes the following note: "I speak at Roseburg Monday, October 18, and the next day will leave for [illegible], Coquille river and Coos bay harbor and [illegible] government improvements connected therewith, [illegible] probably speak at various places, such as [illegible] Point, Coquille City, Marshfield, Empire [illegible], Gardiner, Scottsburg etc., along the route."

[illegible].—The friends of Mr. E. M. Bearden, [illegible] years has been employed at the Boss saloon [illegible] the Clarendon Hotel, will regret to learn [illegible] has been stricken with paralysis. The whole [illegible] side is affected, rendering him helpless. [illegible] been taken to Good Samaritan hospital for [illegible].

[illegible].—Yesterday forenoon the funeral of [illegible], who was drowned last Thursday [illegible] took place. The remains were taken in [illegible] by the Hebrew Benevolent Association, and [illegible] Young Men's Hebrew Association, as was [illegible].

[illegible] regular meeting of the Young People's [illegible] will be held this (Tuesday) evening [illegible] of the Baptist church, commencing [illegible] sharp. Everybody invited to come. [illegible] welcome.

[illegible] members of the Young Men's [illegible] will meet this (Tuesday) evening [illegible] the Young Men's Christian Association Hall at 7 o'clock sharp to join the procession.

[illegible].—Geo. W. McBride and F. A. [illegible] will address the citizens of St. Helens this (Tuesday) evening. They will also speak at Rainier to-morrow (Wednesday) evening.

RAILWAY NEWS.

[illegible] J. R. Davies, general agent of the Chicago and North-western railway for the Pacific coast, is now [illegible] to Oregon. He says the company he represents will have its road completed as far west as the Black Hills within ninety days, and ultimately will make a Pacific coast connection. What is of [illegible] importance to the Pacific northwest, he says that the Union Pacific is now rapidly pushing [illegible] to Boise. A third rail is being laid [illegible] the Utah Northern from Ogden to Brigham, [illegible] miles, so as to make a road of the standard gauge, which is to be extended at once to Snake river and Boise, and connect as soon as possible [illegible] the Columbia river. Twenty-eight hundred [illegible] are now reported at work west of Brigham, and [illegible] the intention to have the road built to Boise [illegible] year. And within another year it is the intention to make the connection with the Oregon railway [illegible]. Mr. Davies says he has no doubt this [illegible] be accomplished.

POLITICAL NOTES.

[illegible] Williams delivered an able speech at the [illegible] Saturday evening. The attendance was [illegible] great interest was manifested.

[illegible] county the republican campaign is [illegible]. There was a large meeting at Corvallis [illegible] night, which was addressed by J. H. [illegible]. It was one of the largest meetings of the [illegible].

[illegible] from all parts of the state indicates that the [illegible] are taking an interest in the campaign [illegible] altogether without parallel. Their aggregate [illegible] will be fully three thousand, and perhaps [illegible], more than it was in June last.

PERSONAL.

[illegible] and Mrs. B. F. Swick, of Salem, are at the Esmond.

[illegible] Thad. Holman, of THE OREGONIAN, is confined to his room with an attack of malarial fever.

REPUBLICAN RALLY.

Preparations which are being made for the Demonstration this Evening.

Most Imposing Procession Ever Seen in the State.

Elaborate preparations are being made by the committee for the immense republican rally and torch light procession which will come off this evening. Every necessary arrangement which can contribute to the success of the demonstration will be completed this afternoon prior to the forming of the procession. There is reason to predict that it will be the largest and most imposing political demonstration ever held in Oregon.

CAVALRY BATTALION.

A large number of the cavalry battalion met at their hall corner of Second and Yamhill streets last evening and organized by electing the following officers:

Major of battalion, Geo. H. Durham; adjutant, A. H. Tanner.

COMPANY A.

Captain, W. H. [illegible]; 1st lieutenant, W. B. Gilbert; 2d lieutenant, C. T. Belcher.

COMPANY B.

Captain, S. M. [illegible]; 1st lieutenant, O. F. Paxton; 2d lieutenant, Dr. J. O. Smith.

COMPANY C.

Captain, Wm. Espus; 1st lieutenant, James Steel; 2d lieutenant, R. C. Brenden.

The cavalrymen will meet at their hall, corner of Second and Yamhill streets at 7 o'clock this evening, mounted ready to march. The companies will then be arranged and torches distributed. The horsemen will march in ranks four deep, and only the outside lines, or numbers one and four, will carry torches, as it would be impossible for four mounted men abreast to carry torches, especially with new horses. The company has grown to such a size that it is necessary that the companies should be formed four abreast. The major of the battalion requests every horseman to be on hand promptly.

GARFIELD CADETS.

Pursuant to call the Garfield cadets met in their rooms in Union Block last evening.

The committee appointed at the first meeting submitted their reports, a style of uniform was selected and a number of names added to the roll of members.

The election for captain resulted in the selection of Ralph M. Dement, who appointed as aides Messrs. Schwab, Myer, Hasperstadt and Southwork.

Arrangements were perfected for participating in Tuesday's demonstration and adjournment made until 7 o'clock on that evening, at which time a full attendance of members is requested.

VISITORS FROM ABROAD.

Although definite information has not been received from some points, which leaves the grand marshal unable to name the organizations in the second division, it is known that hundreds of torch-bearers and others will come in on the several trains and boats.

Corvallis will send upwards of a hundred torchmen and a band, and stations along the road will swell the number to several hundred more—Forest Grove, McMinnville, Lafayette and Independence contributing their quota. The eastside train will bring a thousand or more visitors. Oregon City will send a special boat, a band and 250 Garfield and Arthur voters. The steamer Lurline has been chartered by the Astorians, and will come a hundred strong, and the river districts will keep adding to the number. There will be 150 horsemen from Hillsboro, under command of Mr. Robert Imbrie, and 150 more from Forest Grove and other points.

LINE OF MARCH.

The great difficulty will be to find parade room for the vast number who will be in line. The streets running north and south are badly broken in many places, and the committee find themselves at their wits end to secure a good unbroken route of sufficient length to accommodate all. However, the best possible is being done, and if changes are made in the route of procession, it will be through necessity.

The illumination will be general and will undoubtedly give a fine effect. Business houses after closing will keep their show windows lighted up and many brilliant displays are promised.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS.

It will be of interest to all intending to participate in the republican demonstration to-night to note the following:

Those coming in on the east side trains will find teams in waiting at the east side depot to which to transfer their torches and transparencies, which will be conveyed to Turn Halle.

The west side trains will stop on Fourth street in front of Turn Halle, and here also the torches will be taken charge of by competent persons.

Means will be taken to care for torches and transparencies arriving by boats which arrive before evening. Republicans in organized bodies and unorganized will repair to Turn Halle, which will be headquarters for all visitors.

Club officers and others, who represent the different visiting delegations, should be at Turn Halle not later than 6:30, to form in order the several delegations. By being on hand early, confusion and delay will be avoided. Those not having torches will receive them as they file out of the hall and take post.

Before the procession disbands torch-bearers will be relieved of their torches at some convenient point by wagons stationed on either side of the street.

Republicans of Portland, not attached to any club, are invited to join them and fall into rank at the different meeting places. As the procession files past Turn Halle torches will be distributed to those not previously supplied.

Cavalry companies meet at the corner of Yamhill and Second streets, thence proceed to their allotted post. Portland Boys in Blue will meet at their hall, First near Yamhill. The Garfield and Arthur Club and Young Men's Republican Club meet at the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association.

The colored club (Invincibles No. 2) meet in their rooms on First street near Washington.

Garfield Cadets meet in rooms 11 and 12, Union block.

North Portland club meet over New Market.

The marshals and aids are requested to meet at the office of the grand marshal, corner of First and Alder streets, at noon to-day.

The Oregon Kidney Tea.

If your back aches, or if you have any trouble with your kidneys or urinary organs, don't buy some nostrum that you know nothing about, made in some distant city to sell, but buy a remedy that has never been known to fail, made from herbs produced in Oregon and put up by a firm known all over the Coast. Patronize home industry and be cured at the same time.

The most respectable conducted saloon in the city is the Oro Fino, on Stark street between Front and First, where may be found every day an excellent hot lunch, liquors of the first class, English club soda and all the leading mineral waters. Hot Rob Roy's and apple jack's a specialty. The leading newspapers always on hand.

BRIEF NOTES.

Portland jubilates to-night.

Last week of the legislature.

Read the new advertisements.

Three courts in session yesterday.

Farmers will soon be busy seeding.

This will be a busy week at the capital.

Mechanics' Fair will close on Saturday.

Look out for the gleam of a thousand torches.

If you have any bunting, throw it to the wind.

Portland will be like one huge bonfire to-night.

Regular meeting of the common council to-morrow evening.

Republican motto to-night: "We have heard from Indiana and Ohio."

The new fire cistern at the intersection of Fourth and Clay is completed.

To-night the republican hosts will be as terrible as an army with banners.

These are not very "melancholy days," the bard to the contrary notwithstanding.

Politically speaking, "there will be no rest for the wicked" until after the presidential election.

The cavalry brigade promises to be one of the most distinguished features of the procession this evening.

The citizens of Portland will witness the largest torchlight procession this evening ever given in the state.

A number of republicans from Vancouver will come over this evening to participate in the demonstration.

There will be a fierce conflict this evening between the flashing of 2500 torches and the silvery rays of the moon. In this case Miss Luna will occupy a back pew.

CAUGHT.

Nathan Eaton Arrested on a Charge of Robbing the United States Mails at Spanish Hollow—He Confesses his Guilt.

Nathan Eaton, the assistant postmaster at Spanish Hollow, in Wasco county, about 25 miles from The Dalles, was arrested at that place Saturday by Gen. Ben. Simpson, United States postal agent. Eaton is charged with robbing the mails, and his stealings, it is claimed, amount to $900.

It seems that Eaton has been carrying on a systematic course of larceny for some months. The settlements of postmasters from offices beyond Spanish Hollow are placed in registered letters and remain over night at that postoffice, where they are checked. Eaton, it is claimed, would abstract from these a part of the money they contained, check and forward the letters with the money in it to Portland. The missing of the amounts has puzzled the postal men for some time, and Postal Agent Simpson has devoted considerable time to find the culprit. Spanish Hollow is a very small settlement on the stage line, 17 miles this side of where the road crosses the John Day. Eaton's capture was effected by means of decoy letters and registered packages in which was placed sums of money. These letters and packages were caused to be passed through the postoffice at Spanish Hollow.

In working up the matter, Gen. Simpson called to his aid Capt. B. B. Tuttle of the mail service. Gen. Simpson stationed himself at some point beyond Spanish Hollow, while Capt. Tuttle remained at The Dalles. By weighing packages both before and after passing through the office at Spanish Hollow, these detectives of Uncle Sam soon succeeded in tracing the robbery directly to Eaton. On being arrested, the prisoner confessed his crime. For several years past Spanish Hollow has been the stage station. Eaton has heretofore borne a fair reputation among his neighbors, who are surprised at his arrest, and still more so at his confession of guilt. Yesterday Eaton was brought down to this city in charge of an officer, where he will be tried in the United States district court.

Jesse Eaton, the father of the arrested man, is a very honest, straightforward old gentleman, who has had very little to do with handling of the mails. When the robbery was traced to his son, Mr. Eaton offered to make the amount good.

Much credit is due Gen. Simpson and Capt. Tuttle for the energy and tact displayed in ferreting out the matter and in arresting the guilty party.

Go to the Postoffice Candy Store before going to the fair, for your delicious candies—opposite the postoffice; new building.

NEWS NOTES FROM SCIO.

REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE OF THE OREGONIAN.

SCIO, Oct. 18, 1880.

The wheat crop is all housed.

Dr. Coon will act as conductor on the trains of the company.

The next thing will be the advent of the narrow gauge in Scio.

O. F. Holdridger has been appointed ticket agent at the Scio depot.

Arrangements have been made to have a jollification when the cars arrive in Scio.

Farmers are very anxious for a rain to prepare the ground for fall sowing. Oregon will not have 12,700,000 bushels of wheat next year unless the rains commence pretty soon.

The grading is nearly completed on the entire line from Ray's ferry to Brownsville. The track is laid to within six miles of Aumsville. Mr. Montgomery spent $50,000 blasting out the cut on Horseshoe bend, two miles beyond Aumsville.

Sunday, 15th inst, the men on the railroad were paid off in this town. About 400 names were on the roll. Our town was very lively, business going on as if of a week day. The hotels crowded to overflowing. The saloons in town were ordered closed to prevent rowdyism. About $25,000 will be paid out among the men. During the day liquor was obtained and several men became very much intoxicated. The marshal arrested and locked up one man. Later in the day some fifty men became intoxicated. They demanded the release of the man arrested. The marshal was willing to comply, but the drunken man was not willing to come out of the jail. The crowd appeared satisfied, but when the marshal left they took sticks of cord wood and broke open the door and released their comrade.

The Sunday school concert on the same evening was well attended and the best of order prevailed. About 300 persons were in attendance, the services passing off very pleasantly.

The Sunday school in the afternoon resolved to join in the railroad demonstration to come off upon arrival of trains.

TUESDAY MORNING, OCT. 19, 1880.

PORTLAND'S GREAT FAIR.

TENTH DAY.

The Finest Grain Exhibit ever made in Oregon--Good Attendance, etc.

Contrary to the expectation of managers and exhibitors, the attendance at the pavilion last night was large, and the third week opens out with good prospects. It is noticeable that the audiences early in the week are composed largely of out of town visitors, and last night was no exception. The influx of strangers to the political demonstration this evening will probably jam the pavilion after the procession is ended. The building will be kept open until 11 o'clock, half an hour longer than usual on this account.

THE GRAIN EXHIBIT

By the land department of the Oregon & California Railroad Company and by a few private individuals is the finest by all means ever made in this state, and as far as wheat is concerned, has probably never been surpassed in the United States. The exhibit is shown with good taste along the north side of the main floor, directly under the gallery. Small sheaves of wheat, grass, oats, rye and barley, varying in length from two and one half to eight feet, are arranged in symmetrical pyramids between the posts, and on the shelves underneath the sheaves are placed in glass jars samples of grain. The exhibit shows at one glance more of Oregon's greatness in agriculture than could be expressed in columns of newspaper articles.

Among the varieties of wheat are white velvet, undoubtedly the best wheat in the world and so publicly acknowledged at the centennial exhibition by distinguished judges; Egyptian mummy or seven head, white winter, spring club, big club, little club, Chili club, misty day, red spring, touzel, golden amber, little fall club, Clawson, and last and greatest, the mammoth Prettyman, the largest wheat in the world, named for Mr. D. D. Prettyman of Salem, —a deserved compliment to one of Oregon's representative husbandmen.

In barley, four varieties are shown, viz: white winter, Probstier, spring and six rowed.

In oats, seven varieties, viz: Potato, Excelsior, side, Surprise, winter, yellow Dutch and Hopetor. The latter weighs fifty pounds to the bushel, struck measure.

In rye, three varieties—Winter, peak and white, or goose wheat.

Besides the above are shown specimens of bluegrass, mesquit, red and white clover, redtop grass and speltz.

In sheaves all the above mentioned varieties are shown. Some sheaves of clover seven feet high, timothy nine feet high, and orchard grass seven feet high, attract particular attention. There is also shown some very handsome and ornamental grasses discovered recently near Salem by Mr. D. D. Prettyman. The grass is also found near Corvallis.

The company also show a variety of Oregon woods, viz: Tough oak, brush oak, maple, curly maple, maple burl, spruce, alder, cedar, balm, tough ash, brash ash, yellow fir and red fir.

OTHER GRAIN AND SEED EXHIBITS.

W. M. Powers, Shedd, Or.—Irish lamoth or white velvet wheat, which yielded 33 bushels per acre.

H. Hanson—One bag of each of the following seeds: Red clover, orchard grass, timothy, blue grass, mesquit grass, white clover, red top clover, rye grass and Alsica clover.

D. D. Prettyman, Salem—Samples of ninety day, or centennial, Odessa, seven headed, golden amber, white Australian, Prettyman's mammoth and Chili club. He also shows for contrast, samples of average Illinois, Iowa and Pennsylvania wheat. It is needless to say that Oregon wheat does not suffer by the comparison, but is as far superior, as better soil and better climate can make it. Mr. Prettyman, also, shows a sample of Nebraska wheat, and wheat from the same seed raised near Salem, the latter fully twice as large as the original seed and much more plump.

Jacob Hesse, Scho ll's Ferry—Two jars of splendid velvet winter.

There is still little doing in the local wheat market, and holders throughout the valley show no disposition to sell, even at advanced rates. To-day's dispatches indicate a slightly weaker market abroad and a decline of five cents per cental in San Francisco. The market here is firm at $1 40@1 42½ for good to choice valley, and we hear of a few small transactions at $1 45. Good Eastern Oregon is quotable at $1 35@1 37½.

The only charter for several days was the Bologna, a small iron vessel, at some price between 75s and 77s 6d—the exact figures not obtainable.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The unprecedented excitement concerning the October elections has somewhat interrupted business during the past week. However, there has been a fair movement in the aggregate, but it is apparent that trade in several of the leading branches is shrinking and that as the season advances the volume will grow gradually smaller. There have been unusual variations in prices, though there is on the whole a buoyancy in the general markets.

Wheat rules higher, though quiet for cash wheat and active for speculation.

Barley—Neglected; buyers hold off and sellers firm.

Pork—Dull and steady.

Lard—Quiet and firmer.

Refined sugars—Rather quiet, but prices one-eighth higher.

Teas—Very quiet; prices unsettled and nominal. Some purchases have been made for England, principally fine Congou. The auction sale yesterday was more favorable, especially on Amoys and Japans.

Foreign fruits—Leading kinds are scarce and firm. Raisins are in light supply and prices well sustained. Sales new Malagas, $2 40@2 45, for layers; $2 45 for for loose; $2 75@2 80 for London layers.

Prunes—Dull; first lot new crop arrived early in the week and sold at 6¾.

Borax—Very firm with fair movement.

Quicksilver—Dull; easier; 42½@43½.

Petroleum—Lower, owing to break in foreign markets.

Turpentine—Continues on upward turn and market very firm at 48 in barrels.

Rosin—Good demand for export and prices much firmer.

Crude Oils—In active demand, especially for sperm, with sales at New Bedford of 11,000 bbls at 96.

Hides—Dull, nominal.

Leather—Fair demand, but heavy receipts have increased stocks and prices are ½ and 1 lower; Cala 23@24½.

Hops—Continue quiet. Stock is arriving quite freely and is pressed for sale; dealers will not give over 20 for best in market.

Pig Iron—Continues very dull and there is no prospect for improvement. Foundry iron still quoted 24@25 for No 1 X.

Pig Lead—Quiet at 4⅞ for common.

Tin Plate—Dull, lower.

Hardware—Retains a fair degree of activity, but there are signs of a decline in the volume of business; prices in some instances easier.

Nails—Very dull and although unchanged in price can be bought at cut rates.

Wool Continues dull although there is a more cheerful tone prevailing and current prices are sustained. Sales Cala include 30,000 lbs spring, 27@33c; 13,000 lbs scoured, 60@65c.

New York Money and Stock Markets.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Money, 2½@3; governments, quiet; stocks closed weak; Western Union, 103⅞; Erie, 42¼.

WICKED FOR CLERGYMEN.

"I believe it to be all wrong and even wicked for clergymen or other public men to be led into giving testimonials to quack doctors or vile stuffs called medicines, but when a really meritorious article is made up of common valuable remedies known to all, and that all physicians use and trust in daily, we should freely commend it. I therefore cheerfully and heartily commend Hop Bitters for the good they have done me and my friends, firmly believing they have no equal for family use. I will not be without them."

TROPIC FRUIT
LAXATIVE
[illegible] PILLS
And the Usual Purgatives,
IS PLEASANT TO TAKE!

And will purge at once the most potent and harmless SYSTEM RENOVATOR and CLEANSER that has yet been brought to public notice. For CONSTIPATION, BILIOUSNESS, HEADACHE, PILES, and all disorders arising from an obstructed state of the system, it is incomparably the best curative extant.

TROPIC FRUIT LAXATIVE is put up in bronze tin boxes only. Avoid imitations. Ask your druggist for Descriptive Pamphlet, or address the proprietor,

A LECTURE

BY DR. TANNER, in which he describes the way to live 40 days without eating, may be a good way to save money, but Himes the Printer prefers to line his pocket by doing the best printing for the lowest price that an experience of 20 years demonstrates will pay. Bear in mind that his place of business is at the foot of Front, & Washington street, Portland, and don't you forget that he has all manner of Legal Blanks in stock.

45 Years Before the Public.

THE GENUINE

DR. C. McLANE'S

CELEBRATED

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN

The Most Successful Physician on the Pacific Coast.

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL CHRONIC AND DIFFICULT DISEASES

DR. BRENAN WILL GUARANTEE TO CURE any form of disease of the generative organs or private disease.

He has become an expert in the treatment of disease, weakness and derangement of the reproductive organs of both male and female, including diseases caused by the

FOLLIES OF YOUTH,

Such as SPERMATORRHEA, or SEMINAL WEAKNESS, or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY. Nearly two-thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring, either directly or indirectly, from some derangement of the sexual system, and yet this subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time, from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance, and permit those diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted, their organization broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence.

Everything strictly confidential under all circumstances.

Lost manhood perfectly restored.

Catarrh, Bronchitis, Throat Diseases, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint and all Diseases of the Eye and Ear, Stomach and Bladder, he can cure without fail.

Consultation Free, and a list of printed questions sent to those living at a distance who cannot consult him personally. Enclose postage stamp for list.
